10 things to do on a trip to IWU

1. Set your alarm for a great awakening: our morning chapel!
2. Listen while we rev up our academic engine: Visit a class!
3. Meet professors who are accomplished, caring and tweed coat-wearing.
4. Stroll the new Student Center mall and its storefront cafes.
5. Taste test our "all-you-can-devour" dining hall. Mmm!
6. Now you better try out the elevated jogging track in our new Wellness Center.
7. Count the smiling faces you pass when you…
8. …Walk to the center of campus to find Mr. Wesley.
9. Do a building inspection: 15 new buildings in the last 15 years?!?!?!
10. Sample the joys of being an IWU student. (Membership has its privileges.)

Passengers take note:
Airfare's on us when you fly more than 300 miles.

A Good Place To Land.

If you plan to travel by air to Indiana Wesleyan University and your trip will encompass more than 300 miles, there's one more thing you need to do:

Notify the Admissions Office 10 days prior to a fall or spring semester visit, and we'll shuttle you in from the airport. And your airfare—up to $300—will be credited on your first semester bill when you enroll.

Just bring us a copy of your flight receipt. This offer is also valid with Admissions Visit Days.

To schedule a real visit, contact Rhonda Bowen, IWU Visits Coordinator, at 765-677-2923 or Rhonda.bowen@indwes.edu.
