

Indiana Wesleyan University
Articulation Agreements

Indiana Wesleyan University has credit-transfer articulation agreements with the schools listed below. The details vary among the agreements, but in general the agreement signifies that IWU has confirmed that the listed institution is a school of appropriate quality and has determined the proper mapping of common courses between the institutions. This simplifies the process for students who wish to transfer credits from one of these institutions to IWU. The details of any of the individual agreements are available from the IWU Office of Institutional Research at institutional.research@indwes.edu.
