INDIANA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Prior Enrollment and Federal Student Aid Information Form 2011-2012

As a student transferring to Indiana Wesleyan University from another school, it is not unlikely that a portion of your Federal Student Aid eligibility for the 2011-2012 award year has already been awarded. In accordance with federal regulations, a student typically may receive Federal Student Aid from only one institution at a time. To ensure that your Federal Student Aid is awarded correctly and in compliance with these federal regulations, please complete the release information below and present this form for completion to the institution you previously attended.

To be completed by the student.
