

Sixth Annual
FAITH & LEARNING LUNCHEON
INDIANA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Elizabeth R. Schiltz

*Dueling Vocations: Managing the Tensions
Between our Private and Public Callings*

Friday, March 26, 2010

12:00 p.m. Henry West Banquet Room

The speaker for this year's Faith and Learning Luncheon will be Elizabeth R. Schiltz. Professor Schiltz is an Associate Professor at the University of St. Thomas, a member of the Board of Trustees of the Saint Paul Seminary, and the Co-Director of the Terrence J. Murphy Institute for Catholic Thought, Law, and Public Policy. She is trained in law with an emphasis on banking regulation, general corporate law, and international law. Also, she is a member of the Siena Symposium, an interdisciplinary group of University of St. Thomas professors rethinking feminism in light of Evangelium Vitae.

Professor Schiltz graduated magna cum laude from Yale University and received her juris doctor from Columbia Law School, where she served on the Columbia Law Review. Today, she teaches classes in contracts, commercial law, and banking regulation. In 2007, the graduating class elected her Professor of the Year.

Please RSVP by Friday, March 19, to honors.forum@indwes.edu.

All IWU faculty are welcome to attend. Students who are presenting during Celebration of Scholarship are also invited to participate.

John Wesley
HONORS COLLEGE
Indiana Wesleyan University