

Ninth Annual
FAITH & LEARNING LUNCHEON

Kim Phipps

Hospitality and the Academic Vocation

Thursday, April 7, 2011

Henry West Banquet Room, 12:00-2:00 p.m.

Dr. Kim Phipps, the speaker for this year's Faith & Learning Luncheon, is the President of Messiah College. She has researched and authored numerous publications related to the structure, rhetoric, and climate of higher education; the development of educational community; gender and diversity communication issues; and the complexities and nuances of religion and American political campaign rhetoric.

Dr. Phipps holds a Ph.D. in communication studies from Kent State University. Before coming to Messiah, she served in a variety of leadership roles at Malone College in Canton, Ohio, including professor and chair of the department of communication arts, acting dean of the college, and associate dean for faculty development.

Dr. Phipps represents Messiah College's commitment to civic engagement by serving on a variety of local, regional, and national boards, including YWCA of Greater Harrisburg, and the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities.

Please RSVP by Friday, March 19, 2011, to honors.forum@indwes.edu.

All IWU faculty are welcome to attend. Students who are presenting during Celebration of Scholarship are also invited to participate.
