

Doctor of Physical Therapy Pre-licensure disclosure

The Doctor of Physical Therapy program at Indiana Wesleyan University seeks to prepare the program graduate for licensure/certification and service in the physical therapy profession. Licensure/certification procedures vary by state. The Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy (FSBPT) has collected licensure processes for each of the states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. This information can be accessed here: <https://www.fsbpt.net/lrg/Home/LicensureByExamRequirement> The procedure in the state of Indiana is:

Following successful program completion, the program graduate achieves Indiana state licensure through the following steps:

1. Apply to take the National Physical Therapy Examination (NPTE) through FSBPT at: <http://www.fsbpt.org/>
2. Apply for licensure through the Physical Therapy Committee of the Indiana Professional Licensing Agency at: <https://www.in.gov/pla/2577.htm>

States for which the IWU curriculum meets the State educational requirements for licensure or certification

- All 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands

States for which the IWU curriculum does not meet the State educational requirements for licensure or certification

- None

States for which it has not yet been determined whether the IWU curriculum meets the State educational requirements for licensure or certification

- None