Section I.c Enrollment

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled.

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Total number of students enrolled in 2015-16:	60
Unduplicated number of males enrolled in 2015-16:	12
Unduplicated number of females enrolled in 2015-16:	48

Section IV Low-Performing

Provide the following information about the approval or accreditation of your teacher preparation program.

Is your teacher preparation program currently approved or accredited?

Yes

If yes, please specify the organization(s) that approved or accredited your program:

State
NCATE

Is your teacher preparation program currently under a designation as "low-performing" by the state (as per section 207(a) of the HEA of 2008)?

No

Section V Use of Technology

Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction
Yes
- use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning
Yes
- use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

- 1.The Indiana Wesleyan teacher education program contains a technology thread that is included in each of the eight domains of the Teacher as Decision Maker conceptual framework. As such, candidates ability to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction is assessment multiple times prior to graduation.
- 2.Candidates in all programs are required to take a technology course related to their field of study.
- 3.The Teacher Work Sample is an assessment completed by all candidates during the student-teaching semester. The TWS requires students to collect, analyze, and display pre-test and post-test data using appropriate technology to make instructional decisions.

Section VI Teacher Training

PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING INFO: CHOOSING YES MEANS YOU would be able to provide evidence upon request.

Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
No

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

All general education candidates are required to complete an exceptionalities course which prepares them to teach students who have special cognitive-academic, social-emotional, physical-sensory needs. Part of the instruction in this course prepares students to participate as a member of individualized education program teams.

Does your program prepare special education teachers to:

- teach students with disabilities effectively
Yes
- participate as a member of individualized education program teams
Yes
- teach students who are limited English proficient effectively
Yes

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares special education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Special education teachers have extensive coursework and clinical experiences that prepare them to teach students with disabilities successfully, including training preparing them for participation as members of individualized education program teams. Courses such as Teaching and Learning in Inclusive Settings, Psychology of the Exceptional Learner, Assessment in Special Education, Behavior Management in Special Education, Public Policy and Special Education, and Methods for Teaching Children with Exceptional Needs, combined with over 200 hours of special education practicum experience and 560 hours of teaching in special education classrooms, prepare special education teachers for these roles.
