

Anthony James Manganello

tony.manganello@indwes.edu

Academic Experience

Degrees:

- Doctor of Philosophy (current student), War Studies, King's College London (anticipated graduation 2021-2022)
- Master of Arts, International Relations and Conflict Resolution, American Military University, Charles Town, WV (August 2013), GPA: 3.97/4.0
- Bachelor of Arts, Communication Studies, Taylor University, Upland, IN (May 1999), GPA: 3.4/4.0

Courses taught:

- Intelligence and National Security
- Cybercrime
- Terrorism and Counterterrorism
- Introduction to Criminal Justice
- Criminal Investigation/Evidence
- Criminology
- Criminal Justice Senior Seminar
- Criminal Justice Practicum
- Conducted numerous training seminars for law enforcement, private sector, educational, and other government entities on topics such as counterfeit currency, identity theft, financial fraud, physical protection, and recruitment

Curriculum developed:

- Bachelor of Science in International Relations and Security with two 4 course specializations in Global Security and Cybersecurity; Indiana Wesleyan University
- Individual courses: Intelligence and National Security, Terrorism and Counterterrorism, Cybercrime

Publications/Presentations

- Presentation/workshop: "Notes from the Field: Lessons Learned While Conducting Elite Interviews in Kenya", King's College London/War Studies Department/National and International Security Research Theme, July 15, 2020.
- Presentation: "Citizens use of force", Full Armor of God church security training, Upland, IN, April 15, 2018
- Conference Paper: U.S. Military and Intelligence Engagement in Sub-Saharan Africa: A Case Study of Kenya, presented at the King's College London War Studies and Defence Studies Departments PhD Conference 2017, May 18.
- Manganello, Tony. "Strife Series, Grand Strategy, Part IV: Implications of Trump's Grand Strategy for U.S. Military Engagement in Africa." Academic Blog. Strife, December 21, 2016. <http://www.strifeblog.org/2016/12/21/strife-series-grand-strategy-part-iv-implications-of-trumps-grand-strategy-bomb-the-s-out-of-them-for-u-s-military-engagement-in-africa/>
- "CIA Armed Drones: A Perspective on Legal, Ethical, and Political Dimensions," (Master's Thesis), May 2013

Work Experience

Assistant Professor of National Security Studies, Division of Behavioral Sciences, Indiana Wesleyan University, Marion, IN

- Dates of service: August 2017 – Present
- Teach courses within the Criminal Justice major
- Developing a concentration on National Security Studies
- Serve as academic advisor to more than 30 majors
- Mentor students on careers in federal law enforcement and intelligence

Program Director, Department of Public Service, Indiana Wesleyan University, Marion, IN

- Dates of service: September 2015 – July 2017
- Lead and direct all degree programs in the Department of Public Service
- Managed the development and maintenance of curricula
- Designed and launched a new BS in International Relations and Security
- Develop systems and structures to support academic programs
- Supervised faculty and staff of the department

Owner/Operator, Jumping Bean Coffee LLC, Taylor University

- Dates of service: January 2015 – Present
- Hire, train, mentor student-baristas
- Coffee program development
- Administrate payroll, benefits, inventory, legal compliance
- Manage relationship with University administration

Adjunct Faculty, Indiana Wesleyan University, Marion, IN

- Dates of service: January 2015 – April 2016
- Division of Behavioral Sciences / Criminal Justice Department
- Department of Public Service

Adjunct Faculty, Taylor University, Upland, IN

- Dates of service: February 2014 – May 2015
- Designed and taught a course called Intelligence and National Security, Political Science and International Relations Department

Director of the Taylor Fund, Taylor University, Upland, IN

- Dates of service: August 2011 – August 2015
- Coordinated fundraising activities for student scholarship assistance with an annual goal of $2,031,000
- Academic credit earned in educational advancement:
 - Principles and Techniques of Fundraising, IUPUI School on Philanthropy, October 2011
 - Introduction to Major Gifts Fundraising, Christian Leadership Alliance/Azusa Pacific University, Spring 2012

Special Agent (series 1811 – GS 13/5), United States Secret Service, Department of Homeland Security

• Dates of Service: July 2000 – July 2011

- Protective Intelligence and Assessment Division (Washington, D.C.), October 2010 – July 2011
- Indianapolis Joint Terrorism Task Force (F.B.I.), September 2009 – October 2010
- Indianapolis Field Office, September 2004 – October 2010
- Los Angeles Field Office, July 2000 – September 2004
- Staffed the USSS Protective Intelligence Operations Center, Washington, D.C.
- Coordinated protective intelligence investigations between USSS headquarters and field offices
- Assessed intelligence reports from field divisions, public, and other agency sources, wrote intelligence reports and disseminated products to appropriate entities
- Reviewed current intelligence cables/products and disseminated as appropriate
- Performed liaison duties with Intelligence Community partners
- Conducted numerous domestic and foreign protective advances for USSS protectees involving the coordination of law enforcement, military, private, and corporate entities
- Conducted/participated in domestic and international terrorism investigations
- Performed shift agent responsibilities (body guarding) for USSS protectees (domestic and foreign)
- Coordinated security logistics between USSS and foreign embassies/consulates during the United Nations General Assembly 61, New York, NY (September 2006)
- Coordinated manpower and logistics for JITF Intelligence Surveillance Operation of an Iraqi Intelligence Officer – Los Angeles, CA (March/April 2003)
- Conducted numerous financial crimes related investigations, made federal arrests, and prepared cases for criminal prosecution.
- Prepared and served federal search and arrest warrants in my own investigations
- Participated in numerous surveillance operations, and the execution of arrest and search warrants, including the use of technical assets
- Coordinated and worked cases with investigators from numerous federal, state, local, and corporate entities
- Interviewed and evaluated prospective employees

USSS Training:

- Criminal Investigator Training Program, The Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, Glynco, GA (December 2000)
- Special Agent Training Course, James J. Rowley Training Center (USSS), Beltsville, MD (March 2001)
- Advanced Techniques in Counter-Surveillance, James J. Rowley Training Center (USSS), Beltsville, MD (September 2002)
- Employee Conference on Diversity Issues, USSS Headquarters, Washington D.C. (March 2004)
- Basic Asset Forfeiture Seminar, USSS Criminal Investigative Division, Memphis, TN (October 2004)
- Asset Forfeiture Seminar for Supervisors, USSS Criminal Investigative Division, Orlando, FL (August 2005)
- Basic Investigation of Computers and Electronic Crimes Program, USSS CID, Los Angeles, CA (November 2005)
- Online Basics of Supervision, James J. Rowley Training Center (June 2006)

- USSS Campaign Nominee Operations Section Field Training, Chicago, IL (July 2007)
- FBI WMD Basic Course, Kansas City, MO (March 2010)
- Secure Compartmentalized Information (SCI) training and clearance
- Multiple online DHS compliance training courses

Grants

- Lilly Faculty Scholarship, Indiana Wesleyan University, $5,000, April 2019
- King's College London Department of War Studies Small Grant, £400, March 2019
- Indiana Wesleyan University, Discovered Opportunity Scholarship, $1,000, March 2019
- King's College London School of Security Studies and Public Policy Small Grant, £250, June 2018
- King's College London Department of War Studies Small Grant, £500, May 2018
- King's College London Department of War Studies Small Grant, £500, May 2017

Professional Memberships

- Association of Former Agents of the United States Secret Service
- Intelligence and National Security Alliance

International Experience

Foreign Assignments on Diplomatic Status, United States Secret Service / U.S. Department of State

- France, Switzerland, United Kingdom, Germany, Turkey, Indonesia, Philippines, Guatemala, India, Kenya, Tanzania, Liberia

Co-Sponsor Lighthouse SE Asia Team, team leader/course facilitator – January 2013

- Helped lead a student team through a semester-long preparation course and three-week ethno-tour in Indonesia

Kenya Semester Exchange, Taylor University - August - December 1997

- Spent four and half months living, studying, and traveling within Kenya and Tanzania.

Singapore Studies Trip, Taylor University - January 1997

- Spent one month studying Eastern religious practices, volunteering with Youth for Christ Asia, and visiting various cultural locations.

Personal Travel

- Northern Ireland, Rep. of Ireland, France, Netherlands, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, Morocco, Malaysia, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Israel, Palestine, South Korea, Singapore, Kenya, Tanzania, Mexico, Canada, Bahamas, Puerto Rico

Languages

- Kiswahili – intermediate competency
- French – elementary competency

Academic Interests

- International security
- Intelligence studies
- Cybersecurity in higher education
- U.S. security engagement in Sub-Saharan Africa
- The fusion of humanities and social sciences

- The influence of popular media upon national security professions

References

Available upon request