

The 10th Annual Faith & Learning Luncheon

The Christian Scholar as Public Servant

Thursday, April 5, 2012

12:00-1:30 p.m.

Henry West Banquet Room

Our guest speaker for the 2012 Faith and Learning Luncheon is Judge Ken Starr, president of Baylor University. Judge Starr will speak to a topic that his years of public service make him well-qualified to address: “The Christian Scholar as Public Servant.”

Prior to accepting his current role as Baylor’s president, Judge Starr served for six years as dean and professor of law at Pepperdine University. He is also counsel to the law firm of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, where he was a partner from 1993 to 2004. Starr was Solicitor General of the United States from 1989 to 1993 and argued 36 cases before the U.S. Supreme Court. He also served as United States Circuit Judge for the District of Columbia Circuit from 1983 to 1989, as law clerk to Chief Justice Warren E. Burger from 1975 to 1977, and as law clerk to Fifth Circuit Judge David W. Dyer from 1973 to 1974. Starr was appointed to serve as Independent Counsel for five investigations, including Whitewater, from 1994 to 1999.

Judge Starr earned his B.A. from George Washington University in 1968, his M.A. from Brown University in 1969, and his J.D. from Duke University Law School in 1973. He is the author of more than 25 publications, including his book First Among Equals: The Supreme Court in American Life, which was published in 2002.

All IWU faculty are welcome to attend the Faith and Learning Luncheon. Students who present during Celebration of Scholarship are also invited to participate.
