Jonathan Freije
Class of 2011

What is your hometown?
Indianapolis, Indiana

What was your major?
Business administration and economics

What was your favorite Honors College course?
Honors Research Seminar with Dr. Ream

What was your final thesis topic?
Developing Distinctively Christian Business Students Through Business Education

What is your current career/vocation?
I am a graduate student at IUPUI, studying philanthropy. I am also a graduate assistant for the Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

If you could give one piece of advice to students who are now in Honors College, what would it be?
Enjoy! If you trust in God, He is going to guide your future, and it is going to blow your mind where He will take you. Always be fully participating in the life of the JWHC and IWU community.