EDUCATION WITH PURPOSE

QUALIFYING ELIGIBILITY FOR MILITARY TUITION RECOGNITION

IWU recognizes the sacrifice you and your family have made in service to our country. To honor your service, we gratefully extend a reduced tuition rate for Active Duty, National Guard, Reserves, Retirees, Veterans, Spouses, Surviving Spouses, Dependents with VA educational benefits, and DoD Employees.

To receive the reduced military rate, proof of status must be provided during the application process. This could be a redacted current Leave and Earnings Statement, approved tuition assistance form, DD214, or a VA Certificate of Eligibility.

Undergraduate Degrees: $250 per credit (Excludes Residential and Occupational Therapy Assistant)

*FREE digital textbooks/resources for all undergraduate courses. The student will not be charged for those texts. No out-of-pocket costs for technology fees**

Master's Degrees: 25% tuition discount (Excludes Nurse Practitioner, Athletic Training, Graduate Counseling)

*FREE digital textbooks/resources and students pay $15 per course for the technology fee. This does NOT apply to students enrolled in program that do not use Tree of Life's Textbook Butler.

*Qualified military students will be defaulted to receive digital textbooks/resources through IWU's textbook partner, Tree of Life. If digital textbooks are unavailable, a rental textbook will be issued instead. ** If you are eligible for VA educational benefits, State, or Pell grants that would cover the technology fee, IWU will post the charge and use those funds – there will be no out-of-pocket cost to the student.

By signing, I confirm my understanding that falsification of this document can result in the loss of the above discount with IWU. While IWU makes it a priority to make students aware of available discounts during the enrollment process, the responsibility ultimately rests on the student to notify IWU if they should become eligible. I affirm my understanding that tuition discounts may only be retroactively applied back to the beginning of the current financial aid period, or equivalent for those not utilizing Federal Student Aid.
