Substantial Gainful Activity A level of work performed for pay that involves doing significant physical or mental activities or a combination of both.

Total and Permanent Disability The condition of an individual who: 1) is unable to engage in substantial gainful activity by reason of a medically determinable physical or mental impairment that can be expected to result in death; has lasted for a continuous period of at least 60 months; or can be expected to last for a continuous period of at least 60 months; OR 2) has been determined by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to be unemployable due to a service-connected disability.

Privacy Act Notice

The Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 522a) requires that an agency provide the following notice to each individual whom it asks to supply information. The authority for collecting the information requested on this form is found in 20 U.S.C. 1087, 42 U.S.C. 209 4k and 22 U.S.C. 2601.

- The principal purpose of this information is to verify the identity of the borrower; determine that the borrower is able to engage in substantial gainful activity, and in the event it is necessary, to locate the borrower's certifying physician.
- The routine uses of this information include its disclosure to Federal, State or local agencies, to guaranty agencies, to educational and financial institutions and to agency contractors for the purpose of verifying the identity of the borrower and the borrower's physician; determining that the borrower is able to engage in substantial gainful activity; investigating possible fraud and verifying compliance with program regulations. Failure to provide the requested information may result in denial of the borrower's new loan request.
- This information is necessary to process requests for new Federal Loan Programs.
