

1.6 Statement of Non-Discrimination in University Programs

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to equal opportunity in employment and education. Indiana Wesleyan University admits students and employs individuals of any race, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, age, or service in the military. These have access to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students or employees at the college. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, age, national or ethnic origin, disability, age, or service in the military in the administration of its educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other administered programs. As an equal opportunity employer, Indiana Wesleyan is committed to compliance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and other federal, state, or local laws or executive orders except as claimed in a filed religious exemption. Inquiries or complaints should be addressed on the appropriate form to the Office of the Provost at Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University will take appropriate steps to provide reasonable accommodations upon request to qualified individuals with disabilities, so long as doing so does not cause Indiana Wesleyan University an undue hardship.
