Meet the Firms is Expanding!

This year we are excited to partner with Ranjy Thomas, an entrepreneur, investor, and advisor to a dynamic portfolio of companies in the faith, technology, and entertainment markets, including co-founder of Servant.io. Ranjy was on the IWU campus in October for President Kulaga's inauguration and led a symposium that many of you attended.

Ranjy will be providing at least two senior executives from Servant.io (the Christian Management Consulting Firm representing all the companies) to interview IWU juniors and seniors who have majors in accounting, finance, marketing, business administration, and entrepreneurship. MEET A NEW MEMBER OF THE DEVOE DIVISION OF BUSINESS: Kim Nicholson

Kim Nicholson is the newly appointed DeVoe Division of Business Program Specialist and Internship Coordinator. Kim has served faithfully and well as registrar for the past 13 years. She has been the academic conscience of the university and a stalwart defender of academic integrity. She has progressively modernized office systems for registration, transcripts, and has been a remarkable manager of the registrar's office through seasons of limited resources. Her new position will allow her to continue to serve IWU with the gifts that God has given her. She will be assisting with the internship process as well as admission to division and applications for graduation within our division. She is also advising many of our Marketing students. Watch for emails from Kim about internships for the summer! Please stop up and welcome Kim to our division!
