STUDENT RIGHTS / RESPONSIBILITIES

I. Appeals

- A. Appeals Process: If a student is denied entrance into Student Teaching, the student has the right to appeal through the established due process procedure as outlined in the policies of the Teacher Education Program. A copy of the Appeals Process may be found in the Teacher Education Handbook, or obtained through the Teacher Education Office.
- B. Privacy Act. I understand that my request to the Teacher Education Committee will necessitate that all members of the committee have access to my transcript of grades and other pertinent records unless I specify otherwise.

II. Candidate Review: External Sources

Your academic and social records will be reviewed by members of your content area and Student Development. Failure to meet mentioned department standards will eliminate your participation in the Student Teaching Program.

III. Extracurricular Involvement (Jobs and Activities)

It is the responsibility of Indiana Wesleyan University to provide each student with optimal opportunities for success during Student Teaching. Therefore, students are expected and strongly encouraged to eliminate all employment during the professional field teaching semester. Also, student teachers may not (unless approved by the Teacher Education Committee) serve as a Resident Assistant (RA), be a member of intercollegiate teams or chorale groups, or participate in any organized campus activity which consumes more than a token amount of time or requires off-campus travel. If clarification is needed for extracurricular involvement policy, check with the Director of Student Teaching.
